

The Dallas Morning News

By JOY TIPPING Staff Writer December 2011

What pure bliss it was to watch country and Broadway superstar Gary Morris . . . just a man with a glorious voice, a couple of guitars and an utterly entranced audience.

In better voice than ever . . . Morris' warmth and gift for storytelling (both spoken and sung), tore down the imaginary wall between audience and performer. I don't care how many versions of "Wind" you've heard; you haven't really experienced its power till you've heard Morris sing it.

Same goes for the Les Miz ballad . . .

And he proved that not only does he not need the neon or the high-tech production, Morris is one singer who doesn't even need a guitar.

THE PEERLESS VOICE

heard around the world . . .

in a command performance for the Queen of England, in Les Misérables on Broadway, with the London Symphonic Orchestra, at worship services and on US Military Bases at home and abroad, in La Bohème, at the Grand Old Opry, in Master Classes, on CMA & ACM Awards shows, on the backroads of Texas, and by every living President of the United States.
